

R.S.Q., chapter A-19.1

AN ACT RESPECTING LAND USE PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

(...)

§ 2. — Interim control resolution

Prohibition.

112. The council of the municipality may prohibit new uses of the land, new structures, applications for cadastral operations or the parcelling out of lots by alienation.

Exception.

However, no such prohibition may apply to

1) new uses of the land, structures, applications for cadastral operations or the parcelling out of lots by alienation

(a) for agricultural purposes on land under cultivation;

(b) for the purposes of the installation, by a municipality, of water or sewer services in an existing public street in execution of an order made under the Environment Quality Act (chapter Q-2);

(c) for the purposes of the installation of electricity, gas, telecommunication or cable distribution networks;

(d) for the purposes of a forest management activity or of a wildlife management activity on lands in the domain of the State;

2) applications for cadastral operations required by a declaration of co-ownership made under article 1038 of the Civil Code or by the alienation of part of a building requiring the partitioning of the land on which it is situated.
